University of Michigan's Sue Zielinski to speak at DEA

PORTLAND, Ore. – July 14, 2011 – David Evans and Associates, Inc. and WTS are pleased to welcome Sue Zielinski, managing director of Sustainable Mobility & Accessibility Research & Transformation (SMART) program at the University of Michigan, who will give a talk on Tuesday, July 19.

SMART works with a wide range of disciplines related to sustainable transportation both within U-M and collaboratively with other universities to do research that accelerates innovation and application of sustainable transportation. Through its Living Labs, SMART works with large and small businesses, government, labor, and communities in India, China, South Africa, Brazil, Europe, and the U.S. For more information, visit their website: <http://www.um-smart.org/>

Ms. Zielinski will talk about SMART's work in the U.S. and around the world on connecting the transportation dots, moving minds, and moving the economy. The brief presentation will be followed by a participatory conversation on these themes and how they can be applied in the Portland metropolitan region.
